POULTON POWER: The Under-10s who added the Plate to their league title

Youth's double delight

POULTON Youth have done a double.

After being crowned Under-10s division 1A champions, having won the under-9s title last year, they won the Plate final on Saturday by beating Foxhall 3-0.

Manager Vince Bennett said: "The coaches are extremely proud of all the lads as they have worked so hard all season in a tough league."

"The football has been terrific and it has been a real team performance."

With two games remaining, Poulton have scored 91 goals and have conceded fewer in the league than any other club (32). They have lost only three league games.

Boss Bennett is already looking ahead, adding: "The team is looking forward to the demands of 11-a-side."

"Coaches Martin Balmer, Jed Hartley and myself would also like to thank the parents for their good support and encouragement over another momentous season."

The squad comprises Thomas Bagshaw, Harry Balmer, Jason Bennett, Daniel Carson, Kieran Chell, Taylor Cornall, Adam Hartley, Aidan Heath, Oliver Hockings, Ciaran Johnson, Chase Mills, Kieran Newcombe, Cameron Peters, Liam Rigby, Sam Robinson, James Robison, Harvey Talarczyk, Oliver Tomlinson, Morgan Walsh.
